Sally Keil Presents

HERALDRY, BLAZONRY & THE PLANTAGENETS

Friday, November 6

Chota Rec Center

Room D – 10:00 am

Join us for another Sally Keil history talk!

Local author and historian Sally Keil returns to teach us all about Heraldry – its function and its current place in English society. The evolution of the College of Arms will be presented, and the development of arms as vital medieval symbols of power will be reviewed. The arms carried by the Plantagenet family, kings of England for over 350 years, will be discussed as the class will learn about blazonry. By the end of this talk, each attendee should be able to blazon a simple shield! (BLAZON? What the heck does that mean?)
