

SCOPES MONKEY TRIAL

Friday, July 20, 2018

4:00 pm – 11:30pm

Join us as we celebrate the history of what continues to be “The World’s Most Famous Court Trial.” The Scopes Trial was a famous American legal case in 1925 in which a high school teacher, John Scopes, was accused of violating Tennessee's Butler Act, which made it unlawful to teach human evolution in any state-funded school. The play is a unique re-enactment of the trial, presented in the famous courthouse where Clarence Darrow and William Jennings Bryan battled the case in 1925.

Price Includes Luxury Van Transportation to and from, a stop for dinner at Monkey Town Brewing Company (www.monkeytownbrewery.com) on the way to the play in Dayton and reserved seats at the Play. (Cost of Dinner not Included.)
