Random Acts of Flowers (RAF) improves the emotional health and wellbeing of individuals in healthcare facilities by delivering recycled flowers, encouragement and personal moments of kindness.

A professional florist and/or highly-skilled RAF volunteers will instruct participants in a hands-on demonstration of basic floral design. Each attendee will produce a floral arrangement they will take home with them and a second arrangement that will be delivered to an ill or elderly member of our community, adding enrichment to RAF's mission of delivering hope and kindness.

Agenda:

11:00-11:15: RAF leadership to provide welcome; RAF team to provide floral prep and arranging tutorial

11:15-1:45: RAF team to provide floral prep and arranging tutorial

1:45-2:00: Clean up / Photos

2:00: Depart RAF knowing approximately 35-50 people will be receive beautiful bouquets!

Attire: RAF recommends that volunteers wear comfortable, layered clothing, and close-toed shoes. Aprons, gloves, and all floral supplies will be provided.
