

Light Your Day On Fire !

Join us for something new, exciting, and fun!
Explore your inner artist and express yourself with this modern way of "Fired Alcohol Ink Art". No painting skills required!

The beauty of this craft is if you aren't happy at first with what you create you can wipe it off and start over. Vincent Van Gogh has nothing over you! Wow and then we will...

- Make homemade vanilla ice cream
- Bananas Foster

Then we will gather up the bananas, rum, and banana liqueur, touch it on fire and put it over our homemade ice cream. Oh and then we get to eat it, the bananas and ice cream not the painting.
