Clear Creek Boat Ramp

Length: 6-10 Miles

Type: Out/Back

Rated: Moderate

Friday, April 9th, we will be joining a group of regular Thursday kayakers at the Clear Creek boat ramp. We will be paddling to Bat Creek (at Rarity Bay), take a break for a snack and paddle back to Clear Creek.

We will begin at 11 a.m. and we want to take a combined group photo at the launch site. This photo will be a part of our presentation to the Tellico Reservoir Development Agency (TRDA) requesting installation of a separate kayak launch at Clear Creek. This launch could be used year round without kayakers getting wet. It will also make launching easier for those with mobility issues.
