

During his distinguished 40-year career, retired 4 Star General Doug Brown was involved in combat operations in Vietnam, Grenada, Kuwait and Iraq.

In his final assignment as commander of the U.S. Special Operations Command, he was the lead combatant commander for synchronizing the Global War on Terrorism, with responsibility for organizing, training and equipping all of our nation's special operations forces.

General Doug Brown retired in September 2007, and lives with his family in East Tennessee.

Please join us on September 19, 2022 at 9AM in the lower level of the Yacht Club as we learn about the history of special operations and what we can expect from the military in the coming years.