Arsenic and Old Lace, an uproarious farce on plays involving murder, is a time-tested comedy and audience favorite which inspired the movie starring Cary Grant. Mortimer Brewster is living a happy life as a theatre critic. While he's visiting his sweet spinster aunts to announce his engagement, his world is turned upside down when he realizes his aunts have secrets of their own. Mortimer must rally to help his wacky family and protect his intended bride...all while trying to preserve his own sanity.

Script read through will be Tuesday, December 20, 7:00 - 9:30 PM
