

Is your club or organization interested in subscribing to TellicoLife?

Here is the summary of who we are and how to subscribe.

TellicoLife started in early 2017 as an idea from HOA to create an on-line way for HOA members to manage their membership, see the calendar, register for events, etc. We formed a team and conducted a classic software search. Late in the search, we realized that the needs we had for HOA were shared by other clubs and organizations in the village. What if we sponsored, on behalf of the village, a single on-line place where Villagers could easily find out what's happening in and around Tellico Village? Would Villagers value it? Would clubs & organizations subscribe to it? So.. we launched in mid 2017 and have been growing ever since.

- Over 40 clubs & organizations are currently represented
- All site content is open access on the web – anyone can view it – sign in is NOT required
- We average 6500 page views per week
- Over 3700 households and 7000 individuals are registered on TellicoLife. (These are members of participating clubs & organizations who have individual transactions in TellicoLife, ex. renewing your HOA membership)

What is TellicoLife?

- We use software licensed from MemberClicks, out of Atlanta, GA. They have been in business for about 20 years and service over 1500 associations with their product.
- We are organized as an ad-hoc committee under the HOA, and therefore a non-profit.
- We pay licensing for the software, our management of the content on the site is done by village volunteers.
- Our governance is provided through our founding partners: HOA, New Villagers, TV

Computer Users Club and STAYinTV. It is important to us that we are provided for the village by the village.

- Our board, comprised of the Presidents of these organizations provides strategic guidance and approves finances.
- Our steering team acts on behalf of the board.
- Our admin team manages the software and its content.
